

The Good Eggs Travel the World

BOOK 2 - DIVERSITY

A SOCIAL EMOTIONAL
LEARNING SERIES

Join Seggourney, Reggie, Megg, and Gregory in this new adventure: The Good Eggs Travel The World. Come and journey with The Good Eggs as they leave the small town of Albumen to embark on a magnificent, educational, and diverse trip around the globe.

Along with The Good Eggs, visit the countries of Chile, Zambia, Australia, Japan, India, Egypt, Israel, Italy, Norway, and Scotland. Learn about their customs, cultures, landmarks, history and more!

This second book in The Good Eggs series will prove to be an exciting adventure for sure, so fasten your seat belt!

S. Ciaramitaro

S. Ciaramitaro holds a Master of Arts degree from the University of Detroit Mercy and has taught morality, ethics, and social justice courses at a private high school in Michigan. In addition to her teaching career, she has taught, developed, and implemented programs and curricula that are focused on helping children realize the importance of living altruistic lives centered on love. The Good Eggs series is her contribution to supporting children as they learn about virtues, diversity, and service – essential concepts to integrate into their lives as they grow into Good Eggs!

To Learn More or To Donate Visit: www.TheGoodEggs.org